

Episcopal School of Jacksonville Vaccination Policy

Episcopal School of Jacksonville does not accept Religious Vaccination Exemptions.

Episcopal School of Jacksonville does not accept Parent Choice Vaccination Exemptions.

Episcopal School of Jacksonville accepts permanent and temporary medical vaccination exemptions with the following documentation:

- a. The vaccination exemption must:
 - i. Be documented on the DH680 Florida Shots form from the Florida Shots Immunization Registry; and
 - ii. Be signed by the child's pediatrician or properly licensed medical provider.
- b. Temporary Medical Vaccination Exemptions - All temporary medical vaccination exemptions must include certification from the medical provider executing the DH680 form that the child has commenced a schedule to complete the required immunizations within a specific time period not to exceed the length of the school year. Temporary Medical Vaccination Exemptions that do not demonstrate such certification will not be accepted. Further, Temporary Medical Vaccination Exemptions that do not demonstrate completion of the prior vaccination requirements will not be accepted.
- c. Permanent Medical Vaccination Exemption - A Permanent Medical Vaccination Exemption must list each exempted vaccination and include the clinical reasoning why the vaccine cannot be administered to the child.
